BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

SWELL 141 • MARTIAL ARTS

Please refer to the welcome page for general information:

<https://studentwellness.byu.edu>

COURSE CONTENT: Hybrid martial art class based primarily in Jui-Jitsu. Show and explain proper etiquette expected in martial arts, perform basic grappling control tactics, and participate in grappling martial art competition.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Students will learn to perform basic martial art skills to assist with general coordination and to encourage discovering a new life skill.
2. Students will show understanding of proper etiquette, skills, and safety expected in martial arts by passing a written exam.
3. Students will learn general principles of fitness and wellbeing that will encourage lifelong wellness and assist in the active pursuit of their best selves.

CLASS ATTIRE: Student Wellness supports the BYU Honor Code, including the Dress & Grooming Standards. Students must come to class in appropriate, clean, and modest athletic attire. Shirts must cover the shoulders and full torso. Shorts must reach mid-thigh (7" inseam) or longer. Inappropriate logos or sayings will not be tolerated. Students not dressed appropriately will not be allowed to participate and will be marked absent.

A martial art uniform (called a gi) is strongly recommended for class. The uniform makes martial arts more comfortable and allows students to pull on the clothing in a more realistic way. If you already have a gi, you may wear it with a white belt; otherwise, you may obtain one on your own or ask your instructor about how to purchase one.

HONOR CODE: In keeping with the principles of the BYU Honor Code, students are expected to be honest in all of their academic work. Academic honesty means, most fundamentally, that any work you present as your own must in fact be your own work and not that of another. Violations of this principle may result in a failing grade in the course and additional disciplinary action by the university. Students are also expected to adhere to the Dress and Grooming Standards. Adherence demonstrates respect for yourself and others and ensures an effective learning and working environment. It is the university's expectation, and every instructor's expectation in class, that each student will abide by all Honor Code standards. Please call the Honor Code Office at 422-2847 if you have questions about those standards.

INHERENT RISK: In consideration of my being enrolled in Martial Arts at BYU, I ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE TO ASSUME THE INHERENT RISKS OF THE ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATED WITH THIS CLASS. I acknowledge the risks involved in this class may include, but are not limited to: Injuries from martial arts or gymnastic-like movement; abrasions, dislocations, cuts, bruises, blisters, broken bones, strains, sprains, falls, concussions, torn muscles, internal injuries, spinal injuries; injuries caused by other participants, blows to the body, face or head, exhaustion, dehydration, physical or emotional distress; injuries from contact with equipment; injuries occurring from colliding with other participants or objects; bad decision-making; inattention of or actions of other participants; misuse or failure of equipment; damage to clothing and other personal items and other risks, hazards, or accidents, whether foreseen or unforeseeable.
