SWELL 139 • RUNNING

Please refer to the welcome page for general information:

<https://studentwellness.byu.edu>

COURSE CONTENT: Beginning introduction to principles of exercise and nutrition, training laws, principles and theory, and running mechanics.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Students will learn to utilize correct running mechanics, nutritional principles, and specific physiological and biomechanical testing to avoid overtraining and injury while running.
2. Students will demonstrate an understanding of the scientific principles of exercise and nutrition and their effects on the body by passing a written exam.
3. Students will learn general principles of fitness and wellbeing that will encourage lifelong wellness and assist in the active pursuit of their best selves.

CLASS ATTIRE: Student Wellness supports the BYU Honor Code, including the Dress & Grooming Standards. Students must come to class in appropriate, clean, and modest athletic attire. Shirts must cover the shoulders and full torso. Shorts must reach mid-thigh (7" inseam) or longer. Inappropriate logos or sayings will not be tolerated. Students not dressed appropriately will not be allowed to participate and will be marked absent.

HONOR CODE: In keeping with the principles of the BYU Honor Code, students are expected to be honest in all of their academic work. Academic honesty means, most fundamentally, that any work you present as your own must in fact be your own work and not that of another. Violations of this principle may result in a failing grade in the course and additional disciplinary action by the university. Students are also expected to adhere to the Dress and Grooming Standards. Adherence demonstrates respect for yourself and others and ensures an effective learning and working environment. It is the university's expectation, and every instructor's expectation in class, that each student will abide by all Honor Code standards. Please call the Honor Code Office at 422-2847 if you have questions about those standards.
